Upcoming EFR Events

The Asian & Abrahamic Religions: A Divine Encounter in America

Working to build bridges between religious communities, Sanatana Satsang presents The Asian and Abrahamic Religions: A Divine Encounter in America, a documentary that explores the beliefs, practices, and rituals of Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, and Sikhism. The documentary explores the similarities and differences between the Abrahamic religions, and suggests how they can understand and respect one another. The showing will be followed by an interfaith dialogue featuring representatives from various religions.

The When: April 11th, 6:30pm-9:30pm
The Where: Hoff Theatre, Stamp Student Union
The Cost: FREE

Physical Cultural Studies 4th Annual Student Conference

Focused on the theme of "Bodies of Knowledge," the conference features a keynote lecture (Dr. Josh Newman, University of Otago), a series of roundtable discussions, and student presentations.

The When: April 14th-15th
The Where: School of Public Health Building
The Cost: FREE

Mathematical Sciences Graduation Conference

The Mathematical Sciences Graduation Conference celebrates the research of graduating and continuing graduate students from a diverse collection of mathematical fields, including MATH, STAT, and AMSC. Panel discussions and workshops from previous graduates and professionals will supplement the research talks.

The When: April 28th
The Where: Mathematics Building
The Cost: FREE

Cheap drinks. Free food. New friends.

Next Pub

The When: April 29
The Where: RJ Bentley's
What's Grad Pub?

The GSG provides funds for graduate student organizations to host social events, events which are open to the entire graduate student community. To learn how you can get funding, go here.

GSG-SOCIAL Raffle | Next Drawing: May 2nd

Congratulations to Michael from Counseling and Personnel Services, who on April 4th became the first ever winner of the GSG-SOCIAL Raffle! Michael received a lovely t-shirt, his choice of the highly coveted GSG pint glass or svelte stemless wine glass, and an ultra-rare GSG flash drive.

As always, anyone who subscribes to our weekly social emails will be entered in a Raffle for a GSG gift basket filled with amazing GSG goodies!
